Saturday, December 8th 1930; Christmas is just around the corner and, despite the majority of the population being in the grip of poverty, the country seemed determined to make the best of things and enjoy their Christmas as best they could. Thus, as passengers board the 7.30 pm express from Kidderminster to Bridgnorth, the majority of passengers are looking forward to the festive season as some relief from the daily struggle of their day to day lives. That is, of course, excluding Ebenezer Screwed! Ebenezer does not look forward to Christmas. Indeed he does not celebrate Christmas. To him it is an excuse for the work-shy to avoid going to work. Lost time in which he could be adding to his vast wealth. There are those on the train who have good reason to despise him and others who, perhaps surprisingly, have reason to pity him. But, ultimately, feelings will boil over and culminate in murder! But who will be the victim of this vicious crime and who will be the perpetrator?

So join us and dine in fine style as you travel through the magnificent Severn Valley aboard an authentic steam train. Enjoy the camaraderie and banter with fellow passengers as a murder takes place before your very eyes and you are invited to assist Detective Inspector Crowther in bringing the guilty to justice! We look forward to welcoming you.

Please note that, whilst we endeavour to provide the advertised murder mystery, it is, on rare occasions, necessary to change the scenario for reasons beyond our control.
