

"Spring into Murder!"

A joint production on Saturday 12 May 2018

It is Saturday 12 May 1939 and spring has finally arrived. The worst of the great depression is over and despite the talk of the prospects of war with Germany filling the newspapers and wireless bulletins, the warm weather and the fresh, green hues of spring are lifting the spirits of the nation. The birds are singing, the bees are buzzing and romance is in the air!

That appears to be true of two couples boarding the 7.30pm Kidderminster to Bridgnorth express - one couple young and carefree and the other perhaps not quite in the first flush of youth. But, as they say, seldom does the course of love run smooth! However, even that adage could scarcely prepare you for the gruesome events that lie ahead on this fateful evening when the tranquility of spring will be despoiled by a foul and brutal murder!

By coincidence, Detective Inspector Alfred Crowther is boarding the train at Bridgnorth, travelling to his home in Arley after completing a long and tedious shift at Bridgnorth Police Station. Unfortunately for him, a Poilceman is never off duty and so when a murder occurs, it is his duty to investigate and you may rest assured that he will discover the guilty and make his arrest!

So join us and dine in fine style as you travel through the magnificent Severn Valley aboard an authentic steam train. Enjoy the camaraderie and banter with fellow passengers as a Murder takes place before your very eyes and you are invited to assist Inspector Crowther in bringing the guilty to justice! We look forward to welcoming you.

Please note that, whilst we endeavour to provide the advertised murder mystery, it is, on rare occasions, necessary to change the scenario for reasons beyond our control.
