

A JOINT PRODUCTION BY
SEVERN VALLEY RAILWAY & Murder by Appointment
ON SATURDAY 17 FEBRUARY 2018

It is 14th February 1946, St. Valentine's Day and almost a year has gone by since the end of World War II. On such a day, it is hardly surprising that the thoughts of the young, and even the not so young, should turn to love, particularly, perhaps, for those who have had to suffer the long periods of separation that war inevitably brings.

So it is for Juliet Prentice who is meeting her betrothed, Romeo Moretti for the first time in 3 years on the platform of Kidderminster Station to travel the final part of his journey home to Bridgnorth with him. Romeo, despite his name, was born and bred in England, the son of an Italian immigrant and an English mother. He has fought for the only homeland he has ever known, throughout the war but has now been demobbed after spending the months since the cessation of hostilities in Europe, with the occupation forces in Berlin.

But what should be a joyful reunion for the young couple is about to be spoiled by those who cannot see beyond Romeo's Italian name. Bigotry, racism and intolerance ruin what should have been a perfect homecoming, but could anyone have envisaged it would end in a brutal murder?

Fortunately, and purely by coincidence, Inspector Alfred Crowther is waiting to board the train at Bridgnorth to return to his home at Arley after a long and tedious 10 hour shift at Bridgnorth Police Station. You may rest assured that he will unmask the perpetrator of this horrific crime but he will require your help!

So join us and dine in fine style as the train weaves it's way along the beautiful Severn Valley and you watch as the murder unfolds before your eyes. We look forward to welcoming you.

Please note that, whilst we endeavour to provide the advertised murder mystery, it is, on rare occasions, necessary to change the scenario for reasons beyond our control.
