SEVERN VALLEY RAILWAY & Murder by Appointment
on Saturday 20 October 2018

It is 20 October 1930. Amongst passengers boarding the 7.30pm express from Kidderminster to Bridgnorth is a very attractive young lady who answers to the name of Ava Goodbody. It is not long before such a beauty catches the eye of several other passengers, particularly the males of the species! It will be of little surprise that it is not long before the green-eyed monster shows its ugly face and as sure as night follows day, violence ensues! Regretably, it is violence of the worst kind which results in foul and brutal murder!

By coincidence, Detective Inspector Alfred Crowther is boarding the train at Bridgnorth, travelling to his home in Arley after completing a long and tedious shift at Bridgnorth Police Station. Unfortunately for him, a Policeman is never off duty and so when a murder occurs, it is his duty to investigate and you may rest assured that he will discover the guilty and make his arrest!

So join us and dine in fine style as we travel along the picturesque Severn valley aboard an authentic steam train of the period. Enjoy the camaraderie and banter with your fellow passengers as a foul and brutal murder takes place before your very eyes and you are invited to assist Inspector Crowther bring the guilty to justice. Please feel free to dress in period costume should you wish, to make your personal experience even more authentic. We look forward to welcoming you.

Please note that, whilst we endeavour to provide the advertised murder mystery, it is, on rare occasions, necessary to change the scenario for reasons beyond our control.
