

"The Final Trip to Murder"

An evening of fine dining & Murder Mystery with Severn Valley Railway
and
Murder by Appointment

SATURDAY 31 MARCH 2018

It is Saturday 31 March 1937. Passengers boarding the 7.30pm express from Kidderminster to Bridgnorth are confronted on the platform by an odious man called Stanley Nixitt, who appears to think the world owes him a living and that he is perfectly entitled to beg from others, often accompanied by menacing threats! But, unbeknown to him, this will be Stanley's final trip - a final trip to murder!

Fortunately, Detective Inspector Alfred Crowther is waiting to board the train at Bridgnorth and you may rest assured that he will bring the guilty to justice. But he will need your help! Watch and listen carefully! Trust no-one - not even the person sat beside you!

You are invited to join us to dine in style with the scenery of the magnificent Severn valley as a backdrop as you watch the mystery unfold before your eyes! We look forward to welcoming you aboard!

Please note that, whilst we endeavour to provide the advertised murder mystery, it is, on rare occasions, necessary to change the scenario for reasons beyond our control.
