"BODY OF EVIDENCE" SATURDAY 13 APRIL 2019

It is Saturday 13 April 1934 and Britain is slowly climbing out of the worst depression of the twentieth century. It is perhaps not too surprising therefore, that a spirit of optimism and gaiety abounds as passengers board the 7.30pm Kidderminster to Bridgnorth express. Amongst their number are Jack Morten and Polly Priestly, who have more reason than most to feel happy, having just got engaged. However, amongst their fellow travellers there are those who would spoil their happiness in pursuit of their own nefarious interests! Some very dubious characters are on the train and when their plans go awry, they all too readily turn to violence and that violence leads inexorably to a foul and brutal murder!

It is fortunate then that a Detective Inspector Alfred Crowther should be boarding the train at Brignorth after a long and tedious day at Brignorth Police Station, on his way home to Arley. Unfortunately for him is the fact that a policeman is never truly off duty and, confronted with a murder, he has no alternative to taking charge and commencing an investigation. You may rest assured that the Inspector will leave no stone unturned as he questions the suspects which will eventually lead him to the apprehension of the perpetrator of this heinous crime.

So join us and dine in fine style as we travel along the picturesque Severn valley aboard an authentic steam train of the period. Enjoy the camaraderie and banter with your fellow passengers as a foul and brutal murder takes place before your very eyes and you are invited to assist Inspector Crowther bring the guilty to justice. Please feel free to dress in period costume should you wish, to make your personal experience even more authentic. We look forward to welcoming you.
