"JUNE IS BUSTIN' OUT ALL OVER!"
SATURDAY 1 JUNE 2019

Major Percival Pettigrew RM (Rtd) is not all he might seem! As he boards the 7.30pm Kidderminster to Bridgnorth express on Saturday 1 June 1947, you could be forgiven for believing that he was a distinguished veteran of the war and a highly respected member of society. Regretably, he is none of those things. He is in fact a highly disreputable confidence trickster and criminal who never got closer to the military or war service than a day trip to Dover! In short, you could be forgiven for considering him to be a major disaster! Unfortunately, other passengers on the train that fateful evening were blissfully unaware of his dark past and could be forgiven for believing him to be a pillar of society. But, even had they been aware of the truth about Percival Pettigrew, it is doubtful they could have foreseen that events would lead to a brutal murder!

It is fortunate then that a Detective Inspector Alfred Crowther should be boarding the train at Brignorth after a long and tedious day at Brignorth Police Station, on his way home to Arley. Unfortunately for him is the fact that a policeman is never truly off duty and, confronted with a murder, he has no alternative to taking charge and commencing an investigation. You may rest assured that the Inspector will leave no stone unturned as he questions the suspects which will eventually lead him to the apprehension of the perpetrator of this heinous crime.

So join us and dine in fine style as we travel along the picturesque Severn valley aboard an authentic steam train of the period. Enjoy the camaraderie and banter with your fellow passengers as a foul and brutal murder takes place before your very eyes and you are invited to assist Inspector Crowther bring the guilty to justice. Please feel free to dress in period costume should you wish, to make your personal experience even more authentic. We look forward to welcoming you.
