

"A HAUNTING MURDER!"

An evening of fine dining & Murder Mystery with Severn Valley Railway and Murder by Appointment

SATURDAY 30 NOVEMBER 2019

It is 30 November 1945. The war is over and the nation is celebrating. It is the weekend prior to Halloween and, after the grim austerity of the war years, it is perhaps understandable that the populace wish to have some fun. This Saturday evening sees boisterous crowds heading to parties with friends and families in a variety of Halloween costumes. Sally Marshall and her friend, Elizabeth Fairchild, are two such revellers travelling on the 7.30pm Kidderminster to Bridgnorth express. But their innocent fun is brought to an abrupt end when events turn seriously sinister and reach a truly ghoulish climax! There is nothing quite so sobering as being faced with brutal murder and pools of fresh red blood!

It is then by sheer good fortune that Detective Inspector Alfred Crowther, of the Shropshire Constabulary, is boarding the train at Bridgnorth on his way home to Arley after a long and tedious shift. You may rest assured that he will bring the guilty to book but he will require your assistance!

So join us and dine in fine style as we travel along the picturesque Severn valley aboard an authentic steam train of the period. Enjoy the camaraderie and banter with your fellow passengers as a foul and brutal murder takes place before your very eyes and you are invited to assist Inspector Crowther bring the guilty to justice. Please feel free to dress in period costume should you wish, to make your personal experience even more authentic. We look forward to welcoming you.

Please note that, whilst we endeavour to provide the advertised murder mystery, it is, on rare occasions, necessary to change the scenario for reasons beyond our control.
