

SEVERN VALLEY RAILWAY & Murder by Appointment

jointly present

"An Open and Shut Case!"

10 AUGUST 2019

It is 1948. When Sir Rudolf de Burville and his wife, Lady Alicia, board the 7.30pm Kidderminster to Bridgnorth express enroute to a family gathering at Bridgnorth, they hardly expect that Sir Rudolf's attaché case will be stolen. The loss of the family documents and deeds which it allegedly contained might be considered a nuisance or even distressing but what if the contents of the case were of an altogether more priceless nature; whose loss would not only have dire consequences for Sir Rudolf but would affect many others and ultimately end in a brutal murder?

It is fortunate then that a Detective Inspector Alfred Crowther should be boarding the train at Bridgnorth after a long and tedious day at Bridgnorth Police Station, on his way home to Arley. Unfortunately for him is the fact that a policeman is never truly off duty and, confronted with a murder, he has no alternative to taking charge and commencing an investigation. You may rest assured that the Inspector will leave no stone unturned as he questions the suspects which will eventually lead him to the apprehension of the perpetrator of this heinous crime.

So join us and dine in fine style as we travel along the picturesque Severn valley aboard an authentic steam train of the period. Enjoy the camaraderie and banter with your fellow passengers as a foul and brutal murder takes place before your very eyes and you are invited to assist Inspector Crowther bring the guilty to justice. Please feel free to dress in period costume should you wish, to make your personal experience even more authentic. We look forward to welcoming you.

Please note that all advertised storylines are subject to change without notice.