

SEVERN VALLEY RAILWAY

&

Murder by Appointment

JOINTLY PRESENT

"A TICKET TO MURDER!"
SATURDAY 4 MAY 2019

It is Saturday 4 May 1932. Passengers are boarding the 7.30pm express from Kidderminster to Bridgnorth. Amongst their number are Miss Charity Mouniford-Squires and her sister, Beatrice Mouniford -Squires, who, together with their chaperone, Miss Prudence Pettifer, are travelling to Dudmaston Hall, close to Bridgnorth, to attend a grand Summer Ball. Also on the same train are Colonel Alistair Broadbent and a sinister character who calls himself Boris Zaplinski. One of their number will not survive the journey. But which of them will it be and which of them will be responsible for a foul and brutal murder?

It is fortunate then that a Detective Inspector Alfred Crowther should be boarding the train at Brignorth after a long and tedious day at Brignorth Police Station, on his way home to Arley. Unfortunately for him is the fact that a policeman is never truly off duty and, confronted with a murder, he has no alternative to taking charge and commencing an investigation. You may rest assured that the Inspector will leave no stone unturned as he questions the suspects which will eventually lead him to the apprehension of the perpetrator of this heinous crime.

So join us and dine in fine style as we travel along the picturesque Severn valley aboard an authentic steam train of the period. Enjoy the camaraderie and banter with your fellow passengers as a foul and brutal murder takes place before your very eyes and you are invited to assist Inspector Crowther bring the guilty to justice. Please feel free to dress in period costume should you wish, to make your personal experience even more authentic. We look forward to welcoming you.

