Your Visit to The Engine House

Your train arrives at Highley at 11.03am for you to visit The Engine House Visitor Centre. The Engine House is a 5-minute walk from Highley station.

What's on at Highley & The Engine House:

HUGE indoor beach in The Engine House and GIANT deckchair, perfect for photos
FREE Donkey Rides opposite Highley Station (every Monday, August 2nd – August 30th)
FREE interactive summer stage shows (every Tuesday, August 3rd – August 31st)
FREE Punch & Judy Shows (every Wednesday, August 4th – September 1st)
FREE Crazy Golf (every Thursday, August 5th – September 2nd)

Make sure you're back on the train at 12.30pm for your journey to Bridgnorth.

Bridgnorth

You arrive at Bridgnorth at 12.55pm, where you have over 2 hours to explore the beautiful Shropshire town before your return journey to Kidderminster.

A stroll round the town is a must – the Castle Walk, the two churches – St Mary's designed by Thomas Telford, and St Leonards, and the Town Hall in the middle of the High Street. Just leave yourself enough time back at the station for a brew or a pint in the Railwayman's Arms on Platform 1!

Or, how's about a ride on a vintage double-decker bus? Hop aboard the bus at 1.00pm for a short ride to the National Trust's Dudmaston Hall. Seats on the bus are £5pp (children on laps travel free) and you'll receive a 5% discount on entry to Dudmaston Hall when showing your train tickets. The bus returns at 2.30pm.

Your train departs Bridgnorth at 3.40pm, arriving back at Kidderminster at 4.40pm.

Kidderminster

Once you're back at Kidderminster, you can visit the King & Castle pub, the gift shop and the Railway Museum!

The Flyer from August 2nd – Welcome Onboard

Welcome onboard, this is your train and your reserved seats for the whole day! Be sure to remember where you are sat.

Help us to help you

- You must adhere to current social distancing and other guidelines at all times during your visit.
- Your face mask or face covering must be worn at all times whilst on the Railway, this includes stations, platforms and train corridors.
- Table bookings: face masks must be worn at all times, except when consuming food and drink.
- Compartment bookings: you may remove your face mask or face covering in your compartment or when consuming food and drink.
- Follow all signage and guidance from staff. We are here to ensure you have a fantastic day.
- Wash your hands regularly, especially before boarding and after leaving the train. There is one complimentary bottle of hand sanitiser in your compartment or on your table for your group.
- In order to manage social distancing, please be patient and wait for instruction from volunteers or staff when leaving or boarding the train (more information can be found overleaf).
- Please limit your movement around the train. Stay seated where possible and do not remain in the corridors longer than necessary.
- Please use contactless card payments if you can.
- The Engine House and our Gift Shops, Refreshment Rooms and Pubs are open in line with Government Guidelines.
- Dispose of all litter responsibly in the waste bins at stations, or take it home. There is a disposal bag at your seats for your litter.

We ask all passengers to respect each other, our team of volunteers and staff and our guidelines. Anti-social behaviour will not be tolerated.

Boarding the train

On each platform, you'll see numbers displayed - these numbers indicate where the carriages will stop. Please make your way to your carriage number, ready to board the train. To limit the number of touch points, only board the train via your allocated carriage.
