You can break your journey at Arley, Highley or Hampton Loade, and wait for the train on its way back from Bridgnorth, or go all the way to Bridgnorth.

Riverside walk from Arley to Highley

Leave the train at Arley at 12.55pm, and head down the lane for the river. Turn left along the river bank footpath to Highley, a 2.6 mile walk, where you may have time to visit The Engine House. At Highley, your train departs at 2.42pm back to Kidderminster.

Visit The Engine House at Highley

Leave the train at Highley at 1.07pm to visit The Engine House Visitor Centre, where several of our steam locos are safely on display until it's time for them to be restored for use on our trains once again. The Engine House is a 5-minute walk from Highley station. It's back on the train at 2.42pm for the journey back to Kidderminster.

Visit Bridgnorth

Don't worry if it's raining, there's still plenty to do! Keep warm and dry on the train all the way to Bridgnorth where you can visit the gift shop and grab a brew or a pint in the Railwayman's Arms. Unfortunately not enough time for a walk into the town - something for another day when you've got more time! The train heads back to Kidderminster at 2.10pm – we hope you might even see some sunshine during your last trip!

Kidderminster

Once you're back at Kidderminster, you can visit The King & Castle pub, the gift shop and the Railway Museum!

The Sightseer from August 2nd – Welcome Onboard

Welcome onboard, this is your train and your reserved seats for the whole day! Be sure to remember where you are sat.

Help us to help you

- You must adhere to current social distancing and other guidelines at all times during your visit.
- Your face mask or face covering must be worn at all times whilst on the Railway, this includes stations, platforms and train corridors.
- Table bookings: face masks must be worn at all times, except when consuming food and drink.
- Compartment bookings: you may remove your face mask or face covering in your compartment or when consuming food and drink.
- Follow all signage and guidance from staff. We are here to ensure you have a fantastic day.
- Wash your hands regularly, especially before boarding and after leaving the train. There is one complimentary bottle of hand sanitiser in your compartment or on your table for your group.
- In order to manage social distancing, please be patient and wait for instruction from volunteers or staff when leaving or boarding the train (more information can be found overleaf).
- Please limit your movement around the train. Stay seated where possible and do not remain in the corridors longer than necessary.
- Please use contactless card payments if you can.
- The Engine House and our Gift Shops, Refreshment Rooms and Pubs are open in line with Government Guidelines.
- Dispose of all litter responsibly in the waste bins at stations, or take it home. There is a disposal bag at your seats for your litter.

We ask all passengers to respect each other, our team of volunteers and staff and our guidelines. Anti-social behaviour will not be tolerated.

Boarding the train

On each platform, you'll see numbers displayed - these numbers indicate where the carriages will stop. Please make your way to your carriage number, ready for boarding. To limit the number of touch points, only board the train via your allocated carriage.
