

The Adventurer from July 6th – Your Timetable and Top Tips

Bridgnorth	10.10	2.05
Hampton Loade	10.27	2.22
Highley	10.40	2.35
Arley	10.50	2.50
Bewdley	11.05	3.05
Kidderminster	11.17	3.17

Kidderminster	12.20	3.45
Bewdley	12.35	4.00
Arley	12.50	4.15
Highley	1.02	4.28
Hampton Loade	1.18	4.40
Bridgnorth	1.33	4.55

Not quite sure what you'd like to do? Let our Top Travel Tips help you!

Visit Bewdley and The Engine House

Leave the train at Bewdley at 11.05am to visit the Georgian riverside town. The train will be ready and waiting for you at 12.35pm to take you along the line to Highley for a visit to The Engine House. After exploring our Visitor Centre, it's back on the train at 4.28pm for a relaxing journey back to Bridgnorth.

Riverside walk at Arley, The Engine House and Bridgnorth

Travel all the way to Kidderminster for lunch in our restaurant and a visit to Kidderminster Railway Museum. At 12.20pm, the train will steam its way to Arley where you can join the Severn Way footpath through rolling countryside for a walk to Highley – you may even see some spring lambs! At Highley, it's time to visit The Engine House, before your train departs at 4.28pm back to Bridgnorth.

Spend a day in Bewdley

Leave the train at Bewdley at 11.05am and explore the historic riverside town; there are riverside walks, beautiful gardens and lots of independent shops. After approximately three hours, your train is ready to take you to Kidderminster at 3.05pm, where you can grab a bite to eat in our restaurant and visit Kidderminster Railway Museum. At 3.45pm, your train will take you back along the Severn Valley to Bridgnorth.

Visit Bewdley and Arley

Leave the train at Bewdley at 11.05am to visit the Georgian riverside town. The train will be ready and waiting for you at 12.35pm to take you along the line to Arley for a short break at our picturesque station and nearby village. After exploring Arley, the train takes you on to Kidderminster at 2.50pm, where you can grab a bite to eat in our restaurant and visit Kidderminster Railway Museum. At 3.45pm, your train will take you back along the Severn Valley to Bridgnorth.

Rainy Day

Don't worry if it's raining, there's still plenty to do! Keep warm and dry on the train all the way to Kidderminster where you can visit the gift shop, Railway Museum and grab a brew. The train heads back to Highley and The Engine House at 12.20pm. Here, it's time for lunch or Afternoon Tea and then a wander around our amazing Visitor Centre. Rejoin your train for its return trip at 4.28pm, and head back to Bridgnorth – we hope you might even see some sunshine during your last trip!